

Tech Grant Announcement

Thirteen technology grants have been approved for funding with $80,000 from the 2006 Bond Levy funds. A total of 16 grants were submitted and scored. We appreciate the time and effort required to complete the grant application and look forward to the new and exciting grant activities. The following are the approved grants.

WKHS - Improving Student Achievement Through the Use of Assessment Technology - Kevin Johnson, Ken Nally, Todd Deisher, Glynda Rice, Nancy Smith

Sutter Park - Improving Academic Achievement Through 21st Technologies - Van Lemmon, Vicky Baertsche, Patricia Bernath, Christine Keller, Nancy Kirchhofer, Nancy Rupp

Slate/Evening - Electronic Portfolios: It's Elementary!! - Johannah Benedict, Dan Girard, Mary Ann Mowery, Mary Rykowski, Sharon Strock

KMS - Mobile Broadcasting Studio: Media on the Move - Tom Strous, Nate Davis, Donna Newman, Sarah Federanko, Stephanie Records

Phoenix - Global Connections Project - Beth Cullinan, Tim Dove, Bev Drexel, Robert Estice

Granby - Integrating Technology and Increasing Student Learning in a Digital World Utilizing ActivExpression - Fran Middaugh, Deborah Gartley, Darren McGuire

Granby - Implementation of Student Response Systems in 4th Grade Classrooms - Tyler Hollinger, Todd Korn, Rachel Dawson

Park - Student Responders for Formative Assessments - Kristy Shannon, Megan Smith, Joannie Long

Park - Flip Videos for Visual Arts - Jacqueline Schmittauer, Stephanie Richardson, Holly Quaintance, Megan Smith

UMCH - Mimio for Worthington Campus School - Megan Riffie,
Kelvin Freeman, Susan Richter, William Bates

Brookside - Student Video Presentation and Web Conferencing at the Elementary School Level - Sara Thomas, Carolyn Mayhill, Elizabeth
Jackson, Julie Sunkes, Fritz Monroe

Granby - Mimio Vision Systems - Mischelle Stukey, John Frederick,
Tracy Ruffing

Park - Using a Smartboard with an Airliner to Increase Student Participation and Achievement - Sjanneke Baker, Nicola Myers, Mary
Ellen Jenkins, Jay Addy