Worthington School District

WHAT TO EXPECT IN 5th Grade

Purpose of the Grade Level Guide

- Provide parents a general overview of the content taught at each grade level
- Provide information regarding the district instructional materials used to teach the content
- Provide parents a general overview of the intellectual, social, physical, and emotional characteristics of a child in this grade level
- List resources that can be used to gain additional information regarding Worthington’s Learning Standards in ELA, Math, Science and Social Studies
- Provide resources to assist parents in supporting their child’s learning
- Provide district contacts to whom questions can be directed

Communication with Parents

Communication regarding a student’s program and progress in learning comes in many different ways and forms throughout the year. The chart below best describes the total “Communication Pie.” The Grade Level Guide is one “slice” of the pie. It is intended to give you a snapshot of what to expect at each grade level and resources to help you gain more information about Worthington’s Learning Standards for ELA, Math, Science and Social Studies.

Language Arts

Worthington’s Learning Standards in English Language Arts, adopted by the Worthington Board of Education, are K-12 standards that provide the basis for a rigorous education in the Worthington Schools.

The board adopted approach to comprehensive literacy instruction is the Strategic Balanced Literacy Framework (SBLF) adopted by the Worthington Board of Education in April 2006. The SBLF Frequently Asked Questions (FAQ) document provides more information on the guiding principles of this framework.

Students in grade five continue to read with fluency and expression. They automatically choose a range of strategies to construct meaning from text including rereading for meaning, asking questions, visualizing, summarizing, predicting, and self-correcting. Students describe the defining characteristics of literacy forms and genres, including poetry, drama, chapter books, biographies, fiction, and nonfiction. They build vocabulary and spelling strategies as they demonstrate understanding of a variety of writing forms such as letters, journals, directions, summaries, narratives, and dialogue. A goal for students is to write clear, precise, and interesting pieces while being attentive to details, mechanics, spelling and organization. Students use their viewing and listening skills to record important information in note form and to demonstrate an understanding of information and ideas through discussions, presentations, activities, and projects.

District Instructional Materials:
Handwriting Without Tears - cursive; Words Their Way; Vocabulary Workshop

Social Studies

The fifth grade year focuses on the geography of the continent of North America. Students learn how people came to the continent and about the land and resources they found. Citizenship skills build as students learn about United States history and the democratic government of the United States. Students continue to develop their research skills by obtaining information from multiple sources.

District Instructional Materials:
Holt McDougal: Ohio Grade 5 Social Studies

Mathematics

Throughout fifth grade, students will develop problem-solving skills with a special focus on writing. The following concepts are also experienced in fifth grade: adding and subtracting fractions with unlike denominators; multiplying fractions; dividing fractions in simple cases; solving related word problems; generalizing the place-value system to include decimals; calculating with decimals to the hundredths place; multiplying whole numbers quickly and accurately; understanding the concept of volume and solving word problems that involve volume; graphing points in the coordinate plane to solve problems; and analyzing mathematical patterns and relationships.

District Instructional Material:
Stepping Stones

Science

The fifth grade science theme focuses on interconnections within systems. This theme focuses on helping students recognize the components of various systems and then investigate dynamic and sustainable relationships within systems using scientific inquiry. The Earth Science portion of the class will focus upon the characteristics, cycles, and patterns in the solar system and within the universe. The Physical Science portion will focus on the forces that affect motion. This includes the relationship between the change in speed of an object, the amount of force applied, and the mass of the object. Light and sound are explored as forms of energy that move in predictable ways, depending on the matter through which they move. The Life Science portion of the class will focus on foundational knowledge of the structures and functions of ecosystems.

District Instructional Material:
Harcourt Science and Focus Curriculum

Health

The fifth grade child learns that people of the past and their actions have an effect on the ways that people relate to each other today. The student needs to begin to understand how group behavior affects the individual’s decisions for health. Students begin to learn how personal and public health are interrelated. The human growth and development unit taught in fifth grade focuses on the respiratory and reproductive systems. Also included are safety and risk reduction; exercise and nutrition; and an awareness of alcohol, tobacco and other drugs.
