March 2019

We are pleased to offer this 2019 College/University Resource Directory for students who are planning to attend college, and who are currently being served on an IEP or 504 plan.

Website information, program availability, eligibility requirements, and any fees are listed as well.

We welcome any comments or suggestions that you may have. In addition, if you know of any colleges or universities not listed here about which you would like more information, please call or write us so that we can include that information in next year's directory.

The State Support Team Region 11 would like to thank all of the colleges and universities who took the time to respond to our inquiries. We appreciate their cooperation.

Famous People with Learning Differences

Many people have had to deal with a learning difference. You are not alone. Here are just a few who may inspire you:

Hans Christian Andersen

A children's author who was known for his fairy tales, such as "The Little Mermaid," "The Ugly Ducking," and "The Emperor's New Clothes."

Ludwig Van Beethoven

A talented classical composer.

Admiral Richard E. Byrd

Was labeled "unfit for service" as he retired from the Navy. After he flew over both the North and South Poles, they allowed him to return to the service.

Winston Churchill

Young Churchill failed the sixth grade and later became a great statesman and Prime Minister of Great Britain.

Tom Cruise

Actor, who starred in movies such as Top Gun, Mission Impossible, Rainman, and many more.

Leonardo Da Vinci

An artist, engineer and humanist from the Italian Renaissance.

Walt Disney

Disney was fired from a newspaper because he had "no good ideas." He went bankrupt seven years in a row, and was dishonorably discharged from the military.

Thomas Edison

One of Edison's teachers told him that he was too stupid to learn anything. He went on to become a famous American inventor responsible for the photograph, phonograph and electric lighting.

Albert Einstein

Einstein was four years old before he could speak. He failed high school math, but went on to be a brilliant physicist who developed the Theory of Relativity.

Abraham Lincoln

Lincoln entered the Black Hawk War as a captain and came out as a private. He later became the 16th President of the United States.

Isaac Newton

Newton did very poorly in grade school but went on to develop theories on gravitation and calculus.

Louis Pasteur

When Louis attended the Royal College, he was considered to be "mediocre" in chemistry. He became a famous French chemist who made vital strides in the areas of microbiology and immunizations.

J. C. Penney

Penney was in a psychiatric hospital when he was 57. He owed more than six million dollars. However, when he died 35 years later at the age of 92, he was a multi-millionaire.

Nelson Rockefeller

Rockefeller was former Governor of New York, Presidential candidate, and patriarch of the Rockefeller business fortune.

Leo Tolstoy

Tolstoy failed out of college but later became a famous Russian novelist and philosopher.

Woodrow Wilson

Wilson didn't learn to read until he was eleven years old and went on to become President of the United States.

F. W. Woolworth

When Woolworth was 21, he worked in a dry goods store. His employers would not allow him to wait on the customers because they felt he "didn't have enough sense." He went on to open a successful chain of department stores.

Nothing is Impossible!
