- Bored or tired
- Change in sleep pattern (i.e. sleeplessness, difficulty waking up)
- Overreaction to everyday life events
- Development of Nervous Habits
- Complaints of illness
- Seeks constant support and reassurance
- Attention seeking behaviors
- Display of exhaustion

Social & Emotional Needs of Gifted Learners

Unhealthy Coping of Stress

- Doesn't Try
 - for perfectionists – any failure a blow to self-esteem
 - Coasting along – may be bored, attempt at social acceptance
- Trying too Hard
 - too many courses or activities can lead to burn-out
- Escape
 - substance abuse
 - eating disorders
 - sleep disorders
 - withdrawal or avoidance

Healthy Coping of Stress

- Take a break – engage in an activity for the pure enjoyment of it
- Work for intrinsic motivation
- Spend time with family and friends
- Confront the source of the stress
 - learn to say “no”
 - ask for an extension
 - seek creative solutions
- Exercise and eat well
- Seek out trusted adult for support, guidance, and advice
 - recognize emotions
 - show patience
 - show acceptance and encouragement

Purpose of the Presentation

To share information about our different high school programs.

Mission and vision statements play an important role in clearly stating who we are and where we want to be. It's important that our community, staff and families know the values of Worthington Schools and our aspirations for the future.

MISSION STATEMENT

To empower a community of learners who will change the world.

VISION STATEMENTS

We will engage each student with diverse opportunities to maximize every student's potential.

We will provide a safe environment where every student can grow intellectually, emotionally, socially, and physically.
